Chapter 1 by Magic for the Damned

One would typically expect the Keeper of Fire to have a fiery personality. That they would be unpredictable, impatient, rash.

What one would typically expect is far from the truth. The Keeper of flames have never made a rash decision, for doing so would mean the destruction of not only himself, but everything and everyone that he loved. The flames that he wielded were not toys. They would kill at the slightest abuse.

He was responsible. Behaving with a responsibility atypical of your average 14 year old...

Chapter 2 by Wonder Story - In College

Well duh, The Keeper of Fire thought. Who wants an uncontrolled fire? Maybe the Keeper of Oceans might unpredictable, impatient, and rash, but I'm not.

"-and that is why you'll be sent to the Desert of Solitude. It will help you hone your responsibilities." The Keeper of Fire's mentor said.

"But I am keeping the world safe, or at least my city."

"You haven't ever tapped into a milliLiter of your power."

"So, they're still safe," The Keeper of Fire retorted.

"Wait until puberty," his mentor murmured. Out loud, he said: "Anyway, you parents have already signed you off to a full summer away camp and you leave on Monday."

And that is how the responsible 14-year old was pushed through the entrance of the Desert of Solitude; the only exit appears when all challenges are properly faced.
